■ ■ Our manufacturing

■ Our manufacturing operations involve the production of banking machines and electronic payment terminals under a licensing agreement. This endeavour contributes to job creation, technology transfer, and technical and engineering knowledge development. We have a substantial production capacity, with the ability to manufacture over 2,000 bank machines and more than 500,000 electronic payment terminals annually.

■ Our manufacturing process adheres to international standards, and we have obtained certifications for achieving a domestic production depth of 58% for bank machines and 53% for electronic payment terminals. This demonstrates our commitment to maintaining high-quality standards throughout the production cycle.

■ We have implemented robust quality control measures to ensure the quality of our components and products. This includes both general quality control and technical and engineering quality control practices. These measures enable us to meet or exceed international quality standards.

Additionally, we emphasise the importance of incorporating diversity in our manufacturing processes. This allows us to tailor our production to align with our market's specific needs and demands.

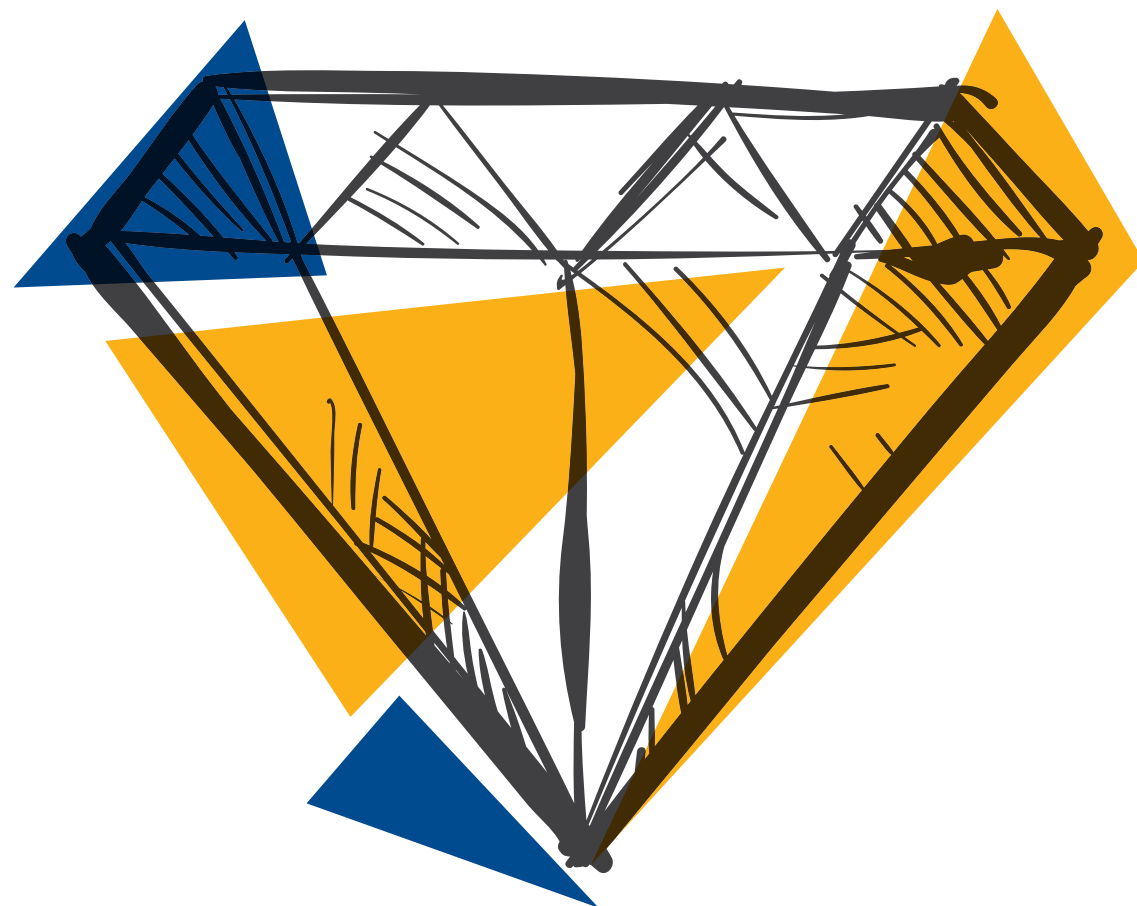

■ Our after-sale services

- Our company is dedicated to delivering outstanding and sought-after services to banks and service providers involved in electronic payment processing. With a comprehensive range of over 85 service centres available in Iran, we specialise in meeting our client's unique needs and requirements in the electronic payment industry.
- We excel in offering comprehensive after-sale services, including support, maintenance, and repairs for banking machines and electronic payment terminals. We focus on ensuring our clients a smooth and hassle-free experience in managing their electronic payment systems.
- Our team of experts is dedicated to providing top-notch support and assistance in various areas. This includes prompt response to technical issues, regular maintenance to optimise performance, and efficient repair services to address any malfunctions or damages.
- Our services aim to establish a peaceful and efficient environment for banks and service providers, enabling them to offer seamless electronic payment solutions to their customers.
- Our commitment to excellence and attention to detail set us apart, making us a preferred choice for businesses seeking reliable services in the electronic payment industry.
